Federal Lead Warning Statement

Federal Law: 42 U.S.C. 4852(d) "Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The Seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the Buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the Seller's possession and notify the Buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase."

Rhode Island State Disclosure Requirements

Rhode Island State Law: 216-RICR-50-15-3 Section 3.8 of the Rules and Regulations of the R.I. Department of Health and Lead Hazard Mitigation Standards requires the Seller of any interest in residential property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 to disclose to the Buyer any known information on lead-based paint or lead-based hazards in paint, interior dust, soil, or water, or potential lead-based paint or lead-based hazards and their location(s), or potential location(s). Such information includes (1) any records or reports which are in Seller's possession or reasonably obtainable regarding such hazards or potential exposure to such hazards in the property; (2) a copy of any current lead certificate(s) for the dwelling or dwelling unit and common areas; and (3) a chronological listing of all available lead inspection reports and certificates for the property being sold. The Seller shall provide Buyer with an Environmental Protection Agency educational pamphlet entitled "Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home" containing the insert "What You Should Know About the R.I. Lead Law."
